Subject: Historical markers being worked on

TOWN CLERK

Hi!

Just to let you know, in case you get phone calls, that I am coordinating some volunteers to get a few of the historical markers around Town cleaned and painted before it's too cold; many outside of the Village of Warwick are in sad shape. I will be putting signs on the posts saying "being restored" so that my email is accessible in case folks think something's amiss.

So far only two need to be removed from the poles. (Burgoyne's Army and Orange County markers, at opposite ends of 94; Ben Astorino's crew will remove those safely for us).

We will do maybe three or four, and hopefully re-start in late spring when the temperature allows.

Feel free to call my cell with concerns/questions 845 325 4944. (have the public contact me by email, though, please).
